Discussion Questions

Did anything challenge or encourage you in this weekend's message?

The church of Thyatira was compromising and compartmentalizing their faith from the rest of their lives. What words stand out to you in Revelation 2:18-29, and what feelings or thoughts do they evoke?

Read Matthew 6:19-24. While these verses talk about money, the principle can be applied to any idol (anything we love or rely on in place of God). What would serving two masters look like for a Christian today? Come up with a few signs or ways you could tell someone was serving two masters.

Where are you tempted to not include God in your Monday through Friday?

If someone at your workplace or the communities you are a part of were to answer the question, "Who or what is {your name} most passionate about?" what do you think they'd say? Do you think their answer would reflect your relationship with God?

What are the two specific things the church in Thyatira is reprimanded for tolerating (verse 20)? What are some modern-day parallels of those? What sinful things is the church seduced by or numb toward?

What do you think are the most common areas or ways Christian's compromise today?

Jesus punctuates each of the 7 letters in Revelation 2-3 with the plea, "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches." What is Jesus saying to you? What would it look like for you to hear and obey? Pray together toward that end.
